The Roman Army Museum

Where the past comes to life

This guide can be used as a tool to help you plan your seamless day.

YOU CHOOSE WHERE TO START YOUR VISIT

Roman Classroom - Sit back while our holographic Roman teacher delivers your class an 18 minute lesson in Roman citizenship, geography, numeracy, light Latin and finishes with an Aesop's Fable.

The Roman Army and its Empire gallery, including the compelling recruitment film and life size reconstructions of Roman soldiers, awaits you.

Put on your specially provided 3D glasses (they easily fit over normal specs!) and view the internationally acclaimed Edge of Empire 3D film which follows the life of a young recruit to the Wall.

Meet the Emperor Hadrian and visit the Daily life on the Frontier gallery.

The museum shop has a great affordable range of gifts and souvenirs.

Lunch: there are picnic tables in The Roman Army Museum car park. (and in the museum grounds at Vindolanda).

ADDED EXTRA

If time permits you can add a visit to the superb section of Hadrian's Wall at Walltown Crags next to the Roman Army Museum—allow about 45 minutes.

Transfer to Vindolanda - about 15 minutes by following the line of Hadrian's Wall through the scenic Northumbrian countryside.

Arrive at the extensive and fascinating site of Roman Vindolanda with its superb Museum -home of Britain's top treasure, the Vindolanda writing tablets

See our archaeologists at work (April to Sept). Guided site tours often available.

Explore Vindolanda, the most excavated site on the Roman Frontier, and our world class museum with its 'not to be missed' outstanding collection of Roman objects.

The museum shop has a great affordable range of books, gifts and souvenirs.

Visit the Coffee Shop where you can sit, relax and enjoy a homemade treat before you stroll around the museum and excavations.

A guide to your perfect day out on Hadrian's Wall | Two destinations | One ticket | A great day out

WHEN YOU ENTER GALLERY ONE you walk straight into the role of the army in the Roman Empire. Watch the Empire expand and contract, learn more about the strength and variety of different types of soldier, look at real Roman artefacts from Vindolanda including the only Roman helmet crest ever to be discovered, listen to the recruiting officer and decide whether to join up.

GALLERY 2 is devoted to Hadrian's Wall with a spectacular image banner of truly monumental proportions, highlighting the successful invasion and occupation of Britain by the Romans and the 3D FILM THEATRE. The Eagles Eye film gives an aerial view of the Wall as it is today then transports you back nearly 2000 years to Roman times for a TRULY MEMORABLE time travel experience. You now have time to visit Hadrian and find out more about his life from boyhood to Emperor and frontier builder before entering GALLERY 3 where the daily life of the multi-cultural army on the Wall awaits you.

VINDOLANDA: THE MOST EXCITING ARCHAEOLOGICAL SITE ON HADRIAN'S WALL. 40+ years of active archaeology has brought this Roman frontier site and its people straight from the past right into the present. LIVING ARCHAEOLOGY: The Roman remains on the site are the most extensive of any fort and settlement on Hadrian's Wall. All daily life is here, military buildings, stores, shops, houses and TWO bath houses.

TAKE YOUR OWN PERSONAL JOURNEY THROUGH TIME before strolling down to the museum. THE MUSEUM: As you pass through the museum you will encounter a whole range of personal belongings lost, left or scattered by the Roman inhabitants including shoes, textiles, coins, jewellery, pottery and so much more.
