

Name:

Julius has just joined the Roman Army. Follow this trail to explore what life was like as part of the Roman Army on Hadrian's Wall.

Gallery 1 – Roman Empire and its army.

First Julius must collect his uniform.

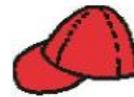

Put a tick in the boxes of the things you think a Roman would wear.

Tunic

Socks

Cap

Boots

Waterproof

Scarf

Trousers

Wellingtons

Cloak

Look at the display of the soldiers and find the legionary and auxiliary infantryman.

Label the soldiers below with the correct type of soldier that they are – legionary or auxiliary.

Legionary

Auxiliary

Gallery 2 – The Roman invasion and the wall

Find the room which has information about the Emperor.
What was his name?

H A D R I A N

Find the big banner showing the building of Hadrian's Wall.
Name three animals you can see in this drawing.

Choose three of the following:
Donkey, horse, pig, sheep

Gallery 3 – Daily life on Hadrian's Wall

Find the training room. Roman soldiers had to practice fighting a lot.

What was the practice sword made of?

Wood

Find the display about Roman food.

List three types of food which we still eat today.

Any 3 of the following:
Carrots, bread, meat, eggs, nuts, scallops, garlic, dates,
Pears, fish

Find the display about Roman writing. Write your name using Roman cursive script in the space below.

A large rectangular area outlined with a dashed yellow border, intended for writing a name in Roman cursive script.